

CIAAI Awards presented at the Annual Training Conference

Nominating. The duties of the awards committee chair shall be to encourage, solicit, receive and screen all nominations received for Investigator of the year, Lifetime member, Distinguished Service, and Special recognition awards. A list of qualified candidates nominated through a mailing and/or posting a list of on the Colorado Chapter website to the email of mmorgan@acfpd.org. The nominee should consist of either one of the following disciplines: fire service, law enforcement, and or private investigator.

The Awards Committee is seeking nominations for the awards listed below, which customarily are presented at the annual training conference by the association.

Life Membership Award

The Life Membership Award may be conferred upon an active member in good standing for a period of 10 years and one who has rendered distinctive service to the Association and its purposes for a minimum of five years. (Limited to two recipients annually.)

Distinguished Service.

The Distinguished Service Award is given to individuals who are active members of the CIAAI and who have shown outstanding service, effort and direction to the purposes and objectives of the Association. (Limited to two recipients annually.)

Outstanding Accomplishment Award

The Outstanding Accomplishment Award is presented to municipalities, agencies (law enforcement or private) and companies which have developed successful programs which help to reduce the incidence of arson by implementing and achieving a progressive, innovative and successful program. (Limited to two recipients annually.)

Award of Recognition

The Award of Recognition may be given to any individual or organization for service rendered to the Association and its purposes. (Limited to two recipients annually.)

Investigator of the Year Award

Investigator of the Year Award is given to an individual who has shown outstanding achievement through the use of professional expertise in both the criminal and civil fields of arson control. The recipient shall not be a current officer or member of the Board of Directors, nor shall the recipient be a member of the Awards Committee. There shall be one annual Investigator of the Year.

Randy Rudloff Scholarship Award

The scholarship award is given to an individual who is currently enrolled in college or plans to attend college the following year. This award is given to an individual who will continue to gain knowledge and help mentor future recipients and pass on the legacy of Randy Rudloff.

In addition to the aforementioned awards, the Association presents Certificates of Appreciation annually to selected individuals who have provided or performed services considered to be in the best interest of the Association.

Rules for the Annual IAAI Photo Competition

1. Nominee must be an active member in good standing of the International Association of Arson Investigators for a minimum of 1 year.
2. Nominee must be an active member in good standing of the Colorado Chapter International Association of Arson Investigators for a minimum of 1 year.
3. Nominee for Investigator of the year, must have a closed case on fire investigation submitted.
4. Any entry not complying with these rules will be eliminated.
5. The following CIAAI Awards Nomination Form must be filled out completely.
6. All nominations must be submitted via email to mmorgan@acfpd.org no later than September 23rd of each year.

Click here for the nomination form.